

JURIST: Todd Burroughs is the founding director of Atelier Art Studio. He is best known for his realist drawings, oil paintings and passion for teaching. He has received numerous awards and honorifics for his paintings.

While attending Columbia College, Todd was introduced to classical art making techniques and shifted his study from Abstract Expressionism to Classical Painting methods. He focused on oil painting techniques in a five-year program at the Atelier Alternative in Chicago. It was at this time that he began his life-long research into art-making processes. In 2000 Todd Burroughs returned to Michigan. That same year he began teaching painting and drawing. His teaching experience includes teaching at museums, art centers and The College for Creative Studies. Todd's advocacy for youth education in the arts and accessible studio practices for all has a proven history of results. He regularly shares his knowledge through lectures and teaching from the studio.
